

Your upcoming website will be solution to a problem. In order to design & develop a successful website, I really need to know the answers of few questions. It's a necessary evil but it'll help me to ensure your return of investment in the web development project.

Every question is only related to your upcoming website and not related to other business/websites you may have.

1. What type of business/website is it? (health & fitness, consultancy, digital marketing)
2. Who are you? (ex: physiotherapist, yoga instructor, SEO consultant, inspirational speaker, life coach, dentist)
3. What does your business do?
4. Who are your competitors (share links of their websites)?
5. What is your business location?
6. Are you just getting started or you already have a business in place?
7. Contact email (this email will be used to send contact form data into your email)
8. Phone number (if you want your website visitors to contact you via phone)
9. What is your goal (ex: getting more clients for my consultancy business)?
10. Who is the target audience (ex: website owners who are seeking SEO experts)?
11. Why should people do business rather than your competitors?
12. Do you like other similar businesses/websites which might be examples (link of the websites)?
13. Do you have a logo & favicon for your website or do you want my team to design the logo & favicon for you?
14. Do you have text contents for your entire website or do you want my team to write the content for your website?
15. Do you already have domain & hosting OR do you need help finding the right company?
16. Do you want my team to optimize the website for SEO?
17. How many pages do you need for your website and what are the names of the pages? (ex: home, about, contact)
18. Do you need a Blog archive?
19. Do you want me to train you or your team on making website updates or content publishing or content editing?
20. Do you have any specific photos you plan to use on your website OR do you want to use free stock photos & give them courtesy OR do you want me to provide licensed photos?
21. Do you want to have social media icons on the website? If yes, please share all the social media account links.
22. Do you want to say anything else about your business/website which has not been covered yet?

Please try to be specific as much possible. If you're not sure about any question/answer, please feel free to contact me at Fiverr.Com/Shihabiuc

Direction for Writing Your Answers

1. Please create a WORD document on your desktop and Name it exactly "answer_to_questions".
2. Read each question & please write your answer in the same serial number as my questions. I've 22 questions and you'll also have 22 answers.
3. Once you're done, please save your word doc file & send me the file on Fiverr.Com/Inbox/Shihabiuc

Thank you for taking time to answer all of these.
